Around the World, Soon Hitler's Boys? From Two Pigs, How Many? Nature's Fertility

Bleriot, who designed the Roscoe-Codomo plane that has just beaten the world's long distance record, speaks with authority on flying. Twenty-four years ago he was the first to fly the English Channel. Now his plane has easily flown the Atlantic, the whole of Europe and on to Damascus. Bleriot predicts "the earth will be encircled non-stop, either by a craft using a heavy oil, or as soon as a means is found for utilizing electrically driven engines."

The Diesel engine in the air will revolutionize flying and cut its cost. Engineers that should know, believe that a trip across this continent or across the Atlantic Ocean will not cost more than five or ten dollars per passenger, with Diesel power. A non-stop trip around the world will attract no attention 25 years hence.

As to "utilizing electrically driven engines" the genius is probably born who will solve the problem of wireless power allowing airplanes to pick up their current as they fly over the various waterfalls and other power plants along their route.

Future days glancing through Hitler's book, Mein Kampf, "My Fight," will find in it explanation of the Hitler wind up.

For instance, Hitler writes: "All education must be so planned as to give the (German) boy the conviction that he is unquestionably superior to the youths of other nations. His physical training must give him the feeling that his nation is unconquerable."

The Spartans had that idea, but they died out, although they trained boys to waylay miserable unarmed slaves on their way to work. In the early morning, and murder them with knives. You cannot make boys or men superior by telling them they are superior. The Kaiser and his officers tried that, and their soldiers kept repeating, as they marched through Belgium, "Paris in five days," but they are not in Paris yet.

The Germans are a very great nation, in science, literature, courage, endurance, industry, everything. But to be pushed into another war now, is what they do not need.

When Sherman was marching to the sea somebody marching with him stole two pigs from the estate of Jefferson Davis. Captain Thomas Jefferson Davis of our army has often told John B. Sherman, grand-nephew of General Sherman, that something ought to be done about the pigs. Recently General Sherman's grand-nephew sent two pigs nicely crafted to Capt. Jefferson Davis, and that matter is settled, almost, not quite.

Lieutenant Sherman has yet to learn what "interest" means. Captain Davis says two pigs are not enough. He will have statistics figure how many pigs the original two would amount to now, after seventy years, and calculates offhand that the descendants of General Sherman will owe him 150,000,000 pigs at least.

The earth's greatest wealth is in nature's fertility. Everybody knows that half a dozen shad, if all their young ones grew up and raised families, would fill the ocean solidly full of shad in a few years, and that the female oyster lays millions of eggs.

When destructive sharks and other fish are killed off, as wolves have been killed in sheep raising countries, there will be more fish of the finest kind than ten times the present population of the earth could use.

A dispatch from Baton Rouge, La., tells of a "crawfish run" in millions, blackening the highway for a distance of five miles, with natives shoveling the crawfish into bags and passing automobiles crushing thousands of them.

Thanks to the new United States law against kidnapping, a woman was arrested in New Jersey recently, accused of sending a threatening letter to a father who had recently employed her as nurse for his daughter.

It read: "Leave $50,000 in silver at main gate at midnight Aug. 3 or your daughter's head will be cut off."

Whoever sent that was not familiar with metallic values and their weights. Fifty thousand dollars' worth of silver at present prices would weigh about 300 pounds, not easily delivered by the father or carried away by the kidnaper.

More important than this news is the fact that the United States Attorney General's office has made arrangements this will make kidnapping hereafter, extremely dangerous, with probability of conviction increased at least 1,000 per cent.

Exciting news tells of a wall of water, four to six feet high, rushing into the city of Denver, following a cloudburst. A flood in a city one mile above the level of the sea seems strange, but anything can happen anywhere.

Assessments Lowered By Carmel Trustees

If Carmel's tax rate should be the same as last year, the city will have to compromise some place, and it will probably be on the street department, according to some of the officers. The reason; the assessment has been lowered $109,465. At 85 cents this would amount to $922.

The following tables were made out by the efficient city clerk, Saidee Van Brower, as assessor: 1932 valuations: real estate, $1,755,505; improvements, $1,549,805; personal, $189,165. Total, $3,514,475. Exemptions, $77,190. Grand total, $3,437,285. 1933 valuations: real estate, $1,718,695; improvements, $1,543,890; personal, $164,140; total $3,426,725; exemptions, $98,905; grand total, $3,327,820.

Most of the adjustments have been made on land, according to Miss Van Brower.

Realtor Pays Dollar An Hour For Parking

Mrs. Rae Welsh Tuesday morning paid a fine of two dollars for having parked her car on Dolores street in front of her office for a two hour period.

Mrs. Welsh contended that it was absolutely necessary for the transaction of her business that her car be near the office. It is different in the case of merchants who do not use their cars in their business. Judge Wood pointed out to her that the ordinance providing for forty minute parking on Dolores street was passed in 1928 at the request of the business men on that street.

MERCHANTS WARNED TO BEWARE STOLEN CHECKS

Police Chief Fred Moore of Monterey issued a warning this week to all peninsula merchants to be on the lookout for stolen travelers checks.

The checks were stolen recently from an express office, and a few of them have been cashed in San Jose and in Santa Cruz. The men who passed the checks are described as being about 40 years old, one weighing about 160 pounds, height 5 feet 10 inches, dark hair, and a "Hitler-type" moustache, cleft chin; the other weighs about 120 pounds, height 5 feet 6 inches, with brown hair.

MRS. WIETHASE PASSES AWAY

After an illness of two months Mrs. Annie May Wiethase died at her home Saturday night. She had been a resident of Carmel for two years, having come here with her husband, Henry Wiethase, and her daughter, Marian Wiethase.

Mrs. Wiethase was the sister of Mrs. Ray C. De Yoe. Her mother, Mrs. May had been a resident of Carmel for twenty-five years, recently having moved to Southern California.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Paul Mortuary in Pacific Grove, followed by cremation at Santa Cruz.

CARMEL FURNITURE BEING DESIGNED AT COMSTOCK'S

The difficulty in finding just right kind of furniture for the simple little Carmel house will be not so difficult if you take a look at the pieces being designed by Hugh Comstock.

Tables, chairs, dressers and beds, all made from out of fine white pine. The pieces are simple in design, some being decorated with a pine tree motif.

There is one gate leg, drop leaf table that should be very popular. It is just breakfast room size, but the trick is that it has a large oval top, fitted to the other, that is light in weight and easy to handle, making a perfect dining table.

The furniture may be seen at Comstock's office on Dolores St.

Michel Penha, Conductor of Monterey Peninsula Orchestra Final Appearance of Now Famous Orchestra at Sunset Auditorium Next Tuesday Evening

The sixth concert in the summer series presented by the Carmel Music Society, the Monterey Peninsula orchestra, with Michel Penha as soloist, will make its final appearance for the season next Tuesday evening, August 22, at Sunset school auditorium.

The orchestra will feature as soloists: Mildred Sahlstrom Wright, violinist, playing the Vivaldi concerto; and Frederick Preston Search, cello soloist, playing his own composition.

The Vivaldi concerto, for strings only, is an energetic, brilliant work. Vivaldi, an Italian violinist, was a contemporary of Bach, and his music has the strong full flavor of that period.

The second feature, Search's composition, is looked forward to with much interest, and those who have been fortunate enough to hear it in rehearsal at the gallery rate it as a masterpiece.

Also on the program is Ernest Bloch's concerto Grosso for the string orchestra and piano, a magnificent work of tremendous musical interest. It is a tribute to Penha's genius as a conductor, that after but one year's training, an amateur orchestra is able to undertake the playing of this composition.

A selection from Bizet's opera "L'Arlesienne" for muted strings, will also be given.

The orchestra will close with the Egmont Overture by Beethoven. The presence in the orchestra of the members of the Penha Piano quartet does much to strengthen it, and fill it out. A finished performance is expected and for this last appearance of the group, a full house.

INFANT SWALLOWS TOY; MAY NEED OPERATION

Martin Lyon, 20 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lyon of San Jose, who have been visiting in Carmel, swallowed a tin auto fender from a toy.

The infant is under observation at the Monterey hospital, and is being X-rayed at frequent intervals. It is hoped that an operation will not be necessary.

JUDGE HILLIARD COMSTOCK IS PROMINENT VISITOR

One of the most prominent justices in the state, Judge Hilliard Comstock, adds another famous name to the list of Carmel's visitors.

Judge Comstock, with his family, has taken a house on Camino Real for a few weeks. The Comstocks make their home in Santa Rosa, and a month or so ago, Judge Hilliard won statewide recognition for the decision he rendered in favor of a farmer whose property was about to be taken from him by the bank.

The farmer's crop had been taken by the bank for money due them, and after taking the crop, they tried to take over the land. Judge Comstock decided that the crop served as a partial payment for the sum due, and the farmer kept his land.

Judge Comstock is a brother of Hugh Comstock, Hurd Comstock and of Mrs. George Seidenack.

The Reverend and Mrs. T. J. Preston and their daughter Barbara left Sunday for Yosemite, where they will spend two weeks before returning to their home in Glendale.

Radiana Pazmor To Be Heard At Gallery

"She makes it her chief task to capture the soul of song, so that it may become as nearly as possible the intimate transcendentalized experience of her listeners. She brings to bear upon an ordinary song such depth of psychological insight and interpretation that it is like some mystical incantation. Listening to her, one has the feeling that she is the very embodiment of music. It is something akin to sorcery."

This is what D. E. Wheeler of the New York Times has to say about Radiana Pazmor, who is to sing Saturday, August 26, at the Denny-Watrous gallery. Her program will be a full and varied one, and a musical event of unparalleled importance on the Peninsula.

Penha Piano Quartet With Jordan Acclaimed

Another grand success has been scored by the Carmel Music Society in the presentation of the five artists, Michel Penha, Nathan Abas, Abraham Weiss, and Ralph Linsley in the Penha Piano Quartet, with Merrill Jordan, flutist, assisting artist at Sunset school Tuesday night.

In the Brahms, opus 60, Abas, guest violinist, was given a chance to show his extraordinary ability, his absolute certainty, his depth and power of tone. His listeners like to hear him because he likes to play and places himself as one with his audience.

In the second number, a trio for flute, viola and cello, the first performance in America, Merrill Jordan gave a wonderful interpretation through his flute. Since there have been only two pieces written for these instruments, the audience was intensely interested. This number comprised, besides Mr. Jordan, Michel Penha as cellist and Abraham Weiss with his viola.

Dvorak, by the quartet, and then applause. Today the audience keeps thinking of the remarkable performance of Linsley, pianist. They felt, they knew, that each note would be taken perfectly, and with feeling.

And throughout every number was felt the influence of Penha, the master—Penha, the artist, who, with the Carmel Music Society makes it possible for the people of the Peninsula to hear elsewhere outside of New York City.

Penha, Abas, Weiss, Linsley, Jordan, we salute you!

VEAZIE READING OF "ALIEN CORN" GOOD

Carol Eberts Vezie read "Alien Corn," Sidney Howard's latest play, at the Denny-Watrous gallery Saturday night, to a very interested audience.

The play, made famous when Catherine Cornell appeared in it, was very well read, without affectation or dramatization.

CITY COUNCIL MEETS AS BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

As is the custom for the second Monday in August of each year, the city council met as a Board of Equalization on Monday and Tuesday of this week, to hear complaints on assessments.

There were no complaints registered.

SCOTTISH RITE CORN ROAST AT SCHULTE'S

With Charles Watson, president as host for the day, members of the Scottish Rite and Eastern Star enjoyed a corn roast last Sunday at the Schulte ranch in the Carmel valley.

The succulent corn was roasted in the hot coals, and served by Mr. Watson to the sixty who came to the picnic. The children had a fine time in the pool, and the picnicers voted the day a grand success.

Fire Department To Hold Big Barbecue

Under the auspices of the Carmel fire department, one of the biggest and best barbecues ever staged will be held Sunday, September 3, at Indian Village in Del Monte Forest.

The Manzanita club is assisting the department and its members are serving with the department members to get everything in readiness.

Instead of butchering a cow for the occasion, the committee has decided to use minute steaks, guaranteeing uniformity throughout.

There will be dancing, and a lot of other entertainment features as well as the good dinner.

One thousand tickets will be printed and a house to house canvass will be made for their sale before the date. They will sell at 75 cents for the full day, 50 cents of the 75c being for admission to the grounds and 25 cents for the dinner.

And it will be worth the money!

State Board Will Name Tax Deputies

"Who is going to collect this god-darned tax, that's what I want to know," said a Carmel merchant today as he dropped his pennies in the baby's bank to be sure to have them on hand when and if a collector does arrive.

Word has arrived that tax deputies will be named as soon as the State Board of Equalization decides on collection procedure.

And this is one time, you "better save your pennies."

Following are some excerpts you might like to know:

With the sales tax now a law, 6,000,000 people and 85,000 retailers are asking the following questions. Here are the answers:

Q. What is taxed?

A. Retail sale or sale at retail to a consumer or to any person who does not make a resale of tangible personal property. Installment sales are taxed.

Q. What is exempted?

A. Labor and services used in installing, applying, remodeling or repairing the property sold; for instance the wages of a plumber; gold bullion, sales to the federal government of prohibitions under federal and state constitutions; gas, electricity and water delivered through pipes or mains (bottled gas and water is taxed) property already under contract for public work projects.

Q. What is refunded?

A. Gasoline now taxed and purchases by governmental agencies of foodstuffs actually distributed to the poor.

Q. How much is the tax?

A. Two and one-half per cent in the gross.

Q. Who bears the tax?

A. The actual consumer; and retailers are especially prevented from advertising that they absorb the tax.

Q. Who pays the tax?

A. The 85,000 retailers in California.

Q. Who will collect the tax?

A. The State Board of Equalization.

Q. How shall the retailer go about getting the necessary application forms?

A. By applying to local offices of the Board of Equalization, State Building.

Q. What is the rate of tax?

A. The board has issued the following schedule: Sales from 1c to 14c, no tax; 15c to 59c, 1 cent tax; 60c to $1.05, 2c tax; $1.06 to $1.49, 3c tax; $1.50 to $1.90, 4c tax; $1.91 to $2.30, 5c tax; each additional 40c, another 1c tax.

Q. How can the 5-and-10c stores make up the tax?

A. This is a problem to be worked out by the board. However, a 1c tax on a 20c article is really a tax of 5 per cent, and the board believes the tax thus will balance itself.

Q. When does the tax start?

A. It started Aug. 1.

Will He Do It or Will He Do It?

"Doc" Staniford May Act as Manikin To Aid the Local Red Cross

"Doc" Staniford is worried. Now when that genial gentleman reaches such a state of mind it is about time that the citizens of Carmel "take up arms against a sea of troubles," or words to that effect.

Probably every one in Carmel has noticed the window decorations in the Staniford Drug Store. Many think that the store is being run in opposition to Stella's. That however is far from the truth. Those dresses and other articles have been made by the Ladies of the Community church guild. They are to be sent to children in the Philippine Islands as Christmas presents by the local chapter of the American Red Cross. The bags there are to be filled with articles for American sailors in the Philippines and other places. What is being hoped for by the chairman and board of directors of our local chapter is that some kind soul, moved at the sight of the still yawning cavities of those bags, will volunteer money enough so that said bags might be filled with stationery, cards, jig saw puzzles cigarettes, tobacco and what not.

As before stated, "Doc" is worried and the reason is this: Being a loyal Red Crosser, he said, he was perfectly willing to place those garments in the window. "But" he remarked, "there is one thing I absolutely refuse to do and in that matter, my wife stands firmly with me, we both positively refuse to try on any of the dresses."

Now if he only would, it would be a sight to make strong men weep and frail women... crane their necks probably. At any rate is there not some one in Carmel public spirited enough to fill up the Christmas bags and let them be sent with the dresses as Christmas presents to our foreign dependencies without outraging the finer feelings of such a loyal public spirited man as our "Doc."

Carmel has lived through many a rumor and doubtless will survive many more. We have been accused of having a nudist colony and many other queer things but what would be the reaction of the outside world if it was known that "Doc" Staniford appeared in the window of his store clad in one of those dresses (the bloomers come only to the knee Doc) with a pair of pale blue socks rolled around his ankles, sandals on his feet and cherubic innocence on his countenance? We ask you.—C. F. K.

AGITATION FOR REPEAL OF SALES TAX STARTS

"Isn't it bad enough to have to take this stuff," complained one disgruntled customer who had just purchased a supply of castor oil, "without having to pay a tax for the privilege?"

"Seven fourteen cent packages of sugar, please," and the poor grocer had to produce seven sacks, and weigh out seven orders of sugar, so that one taxpayer would save two cents.

"And is it annoying," complained another irate citizen, "when your favorite restaurant raises the price of dinners five cents to cover a one-cent tax?"

These and similar complaints have been heard from one end of Carmel to another, and seem to be coming from the entire state. Agitation is being started to repeal the nuisance, and groups are organizing rapidly to bring proper pressure to bear.

Governor Rolph's veto of the personal income tax was given impetus to the movement, as this group feels that a sales tax is fair only when it is balanced by an income tax.

Merchants report profiteering and unfair competition. The public resents paying a cent on a fifteen cent purchase, which in reality amounts to a tax of seven percent, and the question of fair collection of the tax represents to date an unsolved problem.

W. E. Mack took his family and drove over Pacheco Pass Sunday to try to find some warm weather. They found it.

Miss Marie Delmas and Miss Yvonne Castle have had as their guest Miss Betty Wood of Naglee Park.

CALIFORNIA NEWS REVIEW

It won't be long now! Governor Rolph signed the bill which repeals restrictions on the sale of 3.2 beer within one and one-half miles of the University of California campus. It will be 91 days from the time of bill signing before the new law goes into effect.

Members of the Sacramento Valley Agricultural Commissioners Association, meeting in Colusa with Secretary Harry M. Kingwill, discussed plans to prevent the distribution of the puncture virus from Southern California, particularly Kern county.

Public works projects for every county in California, numbering more than 700 and totaling more than $250,000,000, have been submitted by the State Chamber of Commerce to Justus Wardell, district administrator of the national public works program.

California has served notice on kidnappers that in this State they can expect the gallows. Governor James Rolph signed SB 236, by Senator Herbert W. Slater, Santa Rosa, prescribing the death penalty or life imprisonment without parole for kidnappers whose victims suffer bodily violence.

Evidencing decreasing markets, State Agricultural Director A. A. Brock announced a drop of 50 per cent in values of California agricultural products to farmers in the last four years. He said fruit, truck garden and field crops, plus livestock products, totaled in figures $728,975,000 in 1929, compared with only $375,535,000 for the last year.

Democrats—or at least persons giving their political affiliations as such—are registering in San Francisco 2 1/2 to 1 compared to Republicans. Registrar Major Charles J. Collins announced the preponderance of Democrats in the registration. "No way to account for it, unless the young folks reaching the voting age are joining the Roosevelt following," said Collins.

Following a city-wide conference on the National Recovery Act in Santa Monica a municipal public works program totaling $1,139,000 will be forwarded to the Federal government by Santa Monica city officials. It was announced. Items approved by the conference include $207,000 sought as a Federal gift for use in the city's yacht harbor project, now under construction.

The State Workers' Compensation Act will not apply, under legislation signed by Governor James Rolph recently, to workers temporarily given jobs by municipal and county relief agencies. The bill was introduced by Assemblyman Thomas A. Maloney, San Francisco. State relief organizations contended that without it they would be forced to carry heavy insurance seriously interfering with their welfare program expenditures.

Federal control of all raisins, government guarantee of a minimum price to growers, and the appointment of an administrator to enforce the code, has the approval of a Statewide committee drafting a raisin industry agreement. The committee refused to fix a minimum price to growers on the theory that packers would take advantage of such action to dump present stocks on the markets. The group recommended, however, that the government consider a minimum of 4 cents a pound for Thompsons and 5 cents a pound for Muscats and Sultanas of standard quality. The committee favored higher wages to the industry's labor, but declined to fix a minimum scale of 25 cents an hour.

Representatives of the Highway Commission will make a survey of the proposed Trans Sierra-Lone Pine road, which will connect Camp Nelson in Tulare county with Lone Pine in Inyo county, some time this month. Efforts are being made to get the State to make an immediate survey of the proposed route, then secure co-operation of the Forest Service to the end that members of the Quaking Aspen C. C. near Camp Nelson remove brush from the road so that it will be ready for construction work in 1934. Homer W. Wood, Porterville publisher, a member of the Goods Roads Committee of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Tulare county, and the Porterville Chamber of Commerce, is in receipt of a letter from Earl Lee Kelly, director of public works, in regard to the project. Wood suggested such utilization of the civilian conservation manpower.

Issuance of a $5,000,000 block of the $20,000,000 unemployment relief bonds approved by the Legislature and the voters was sanctioned at a meeting held in Sacramento recently by the Relief Finance Committee. State Relief Administrator R. C. Brannon and other State officials ordered the bonds issued for loans to cities and counties to be used for alleviation of destitution and support of public works projects provided for in the bond act.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Comstock returned to their home Monday after a week's visit to their ranch near Winters. They also visited with friends in Santa Rosa.

A. C. Hanson of Santa Barbara was elected president of the newly organized Motor Court Judges Association of California. Other officers elected are: S. A. Davis, Oxnard, vice president; G. E. Henderson, Merced, secretary; C. E. Jones, Merced, treasurer; directors, W. S. Guilan, Tulare; W. K. Boskey, Calheco; J. W. Vengas, Santa Monica; Mrs. J. K. Shireman, Palmdale; Earl Sprott, Los Angeles; and J. E. Young, San Diego.

California fruit growers won an important sales tax concession when the State Board of Equalization ruled box shooks, used in large quantities in their industry, is exempt from the tax. In doing so the board decided box shooks come under the general classification of containers sold to producers as packages to be used for product distribution. Articles under this general classification with few exceptions are exempted. Most of the shooks used in the industry come from northern California and the Klamath territory of southern Oregon.

The shortest air mail route in the United States, is the unique claim of Sierra Madre, but it gives its sole patron a lot of worry. Albert Gregory, manager of the Hastings ranch west of that city's limits, gets his mail from Sierra Madre postoffice by airplane. His grandson, Gregory Chase, picks up the mail at the postoffice and while flying to his airplane hangar at Montoya, he drops the mail into his grandfather's front yard. "I'm proud as a peacock that that grandson of mine," he says, "but I pretty near have heart failure every time he comes low down to drop the mail."

Fulfilling the government's determination to fight "fire with fire" in a program to wipe out gangsterism, as outlined by President Roosevelt's official associates following several recent sensational kidnappings, agents of the Department of Justice, working out of the United States Bureau of Investigation, who hitherto have worked unarmed, are to be taught to use all manner of firearms, including sub-machine guns, army service revolvers and rifles. Joseph Dunn, agent in charge of the Los Angeles branch of the bureau, with offices in the Federal Building, recently received a consignment of the machine guns, automatic shot guns, revolvers and rifles and ammunition.

The Tulare section of the San Joaquin Valley lost one of its early day landmarks when fire destroyed a two-story residence, a mile south of town, recently. Erected in the 10's by the government, for a number of years it was operated as an experimental farm to determine the vines, trees, flowers, fruits, truck and field crops best adapted to this vicinity. Title to the property had been held for several years by the Security-First National Bank, but the house had been occupied by A. Evans and family. Neighbors assisted in removing household furnishings and prevented spread of the flames to adjacent buildings. A defective fuse is believed to have caused the fire. The loss is said to be partly covered by insurance.

Directors of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, the co-operative controlling the bulk of the citrus crop in California, have voted to participate in a national marketing agreement to improve the citrus markets. Returning from a conference at Washington with the secretary of agriculture, President Charles C. Teague and General Manager Paul S. Armstrong reported to the directors. The agreement they submitted and which was unanimously adopted, provides for the proration of shipments along lines similar to the California stabilization agreement reached by the citrus growers several weeks ago. Similar agreements are being drawn by the Florida, Texas and Porto Rico citrus producers.

Temporary organization of the California Racing Commission was announced by W. P. Roth, San Francisco member, who gave out the opening of main offices in Sacramento and branches in San Francisco and Los Angeles. W. C. Buchanan of Los Angeles, well known to Carleton Burke, has been named temporary secretary to remain in that capacity until such time as the commission goes over the various applications. J. K. Macomber has been named to represent the commission at the Sacramento State and all county fairs. Offices are as follows: Sacramento headquarters, room 205, State building; San Francisco offices, Matson building; representative not chosen. Los Angeles, room 705, Van Noy building; W. C. Buchanan, temporary secretary, in charge. No date for the next commission meeting has been announced.

Conditions were satisfactory in 118 out of 222 roadside eating places just inspected throughout the State, according to Dr. Giles S. Porter, head of the State Department of Public Health. Minor defects were reported in eighty-eight establishments and unsanitary conditions in twenty-two, the health department chief said. Fifty-four places in Orange county were inspected. Conditions were satisfactory in thirty-seven of them and minor defects were reported in the others.

Mr. and Mrs. Cree Wilders left Monday for a few weeks vacation in the northern part of the state. They will spend some time at Klamath Falls.

Just Anything

By Just Anybody
The Mean Printer

A certain printer on the peninsula sold his house and furniture. He then went to a certain peninsula store and selected $600 worth of furniture for which he was to pay cash. After his order was in, he found that the merchant had rejected a bid of his for $30 on stationery and had ordered the printing from a mail order house in New York. The printer took the merchant to task, "Why didn't you buy from me? I am buying from you." "That's the way I do business," said Mr. Merchant. "Cancel my order for furniture," said the printer, "that's the way I do business."

A certain Carmel woman went to a summer vacationist who had owed her $240 for two years. "I'd like to have my money," said Mrs. Carmel Lady. "You'll just have to look for it," replied Mrs. Summer visitor, riding away in one of her several beautiful cars. Whereupon the first named ran an attachment on the car belonging to the second named to provide facilities for honking.

Bruce Fox, teacher of short story at Denny-Watrous gallery every Monday from 1:30 to 3, says, "If you need plot for a story, flip five to seven pages of the dictionary and take the word in the upper left hand corner. If not one of these five or seven words presents a plot, you could not use one anyway." We'll have to turn over a new leaf before we'll ever be able to find time to hunt for a plot.

There have been nine accidents from reckless driving in Carmel since the first of July, and four persons have been injured. Let's have more wreck-less driving after this.

Have you yet purchased a membership in the Junior Association of the Carmel Music Society for your child or some little friend?

Palo Alto usurped Carmel's prerogative and is "different", having voted against the sale of beer within the city limits.

If all petitions that have been circulated in Carmel were placed end to end and covered with gasoline, they would make a nice hot fire.

Mrs. Calvin Meade has returned to her home after a visit of some weeks in Piedmont with relatives.

Edward Weston has had as his guest Jean Charlot, Mexican painter whose work was recently on exhibition at the Denny-Watrous gallery.

Mrs. Alice Meckenstock and her daughter, Alice, returned last week from an extended trip east, where they visited the fair at Chicago.

Speaking on a program arranged by Dr. John Merrill, P. J. Dougherty, postmaster of Monterey, explained to the Lion's club the meaning of NRA.

He explained the difference between NIRA and NRA, saying that the NIRA, the regulation of industry by codes, was made a law by Congress, but the NRA blanket agreement was passed to cut red tape, and avoid the delay.

The NRA is a gentleman's agreement, with no penalties, but the NIRA has the effect and force of law, with drastic penalties for violations.

NEWS NOTES of Carmel Valley, Pebble Beach and the Highlands

Carmel Valley

Roy Rudolph and family are now occupying the cottage which Mrs. Gibbons has just vacated in Robles Del Rio.

Seems like bad news prevails in Robles Del Rio this week. Mrs. Arthur Metz is in the hospital in Monterey recovering from an operation; Mrs. Stella Stafford Mather has been ill with the "flu"; Miss Frances Taylor is miserable with a bad attack of hay fever.

A peculiar find was made in Carmel Valley recently when a piece of chalk rock was being quarried. It is impossible to say just what the significance of this find may be. When the rock was split open a pine needle was found deeply bedded in the center. A trained paleontologist is perhaps the only one qualified to pass upon what this means, but to a lay mind it would seem to indicate that pines were growing and mature when the stones were still in the process of hardening. There seems to be no other explanation than that this needle must have fallen upon the rock while it was still gathering itself into the mass of lime which afterwards hardened into rock.

Carmel Valley apricots are about ready for market so prepare for a treat.

Mrs. Flora Steffani is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Felix, in Camp Steffani. Mrs. Steffani is a well known figure in Carmel Valley as she and her husband lived there many years.

on the site of what is now Camp Steffani.

Lena Salvano is returning to San Mateo where she is attending the Junior college of San Mateo.

The quarterly meeting of the Home Department of the Farm Centers was held last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Anne Olsen in Salinas. Miss Olsen is the Agent for the Home Department centers. Carmelo Center was the hostess at the lunch, which was served at 1 o'clock following the business meeting. Mrs. J. C. Anthony, Sr., was chairman for the occasion. At the business meeting plans were discussed for the Annual Playday for all the County Centers. This is a feature that is being stressed at present in all the Farm Centers. The need for recreation and fun for the farm women. This day (a sort of hi-jinks for the women folks) will come sometime in October. The 4-H club was also represented at the meeting and gave reports of their various activities. At each of these meetings there are three representatives from the eleven centers. The hostess center however is allowed to have more as upon them devolves the duty of serving luncheon. Among those present from the Carmel Valley, which is the Carmelo Center, were Mrs. B. H. Schulte, president of the Carmelo Center, Mrs. H. B. Shulte, Mrs. Roy Martin, Mrs. J. H. Stewart, Mrs. George Freyre, Mrs. J. C. Anthony, Sr., Virginia Lee Shulte, Jean Stewart, Elizabeth Anne Martin.

FIREMEN START ON

SERIES OF LESSONS

Following up the conference which was held in Oak Grove some time ago, Captain Baker has again taken up his work with the fire department on the peninsula and will turn out experts who will in turn train others to be expert in the matter of fire fighting.

From the class teachers will be chosen who have shown particular aptitude in certain phases and problems to instruct the different departments of the district in their lines.

Mrs. J. O. Niswonger and son Richard Niswonger are at Highlands for the week. Mr. Niswonger is entertaining friends from Menlo Junior college.

Mr. Zaraga of New Jersey, who has been visiting his sister Miss Zaraga has left for his home in the East. While here, Mr. Zaraga was entertained at many gay parties given by residents of Highlands.

Many of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dougherty gathered last evening at their Carmel Highlands studio home to congratulate the couple who were married in San Diego, August 10 five years ago. An informal buffet supper was served during the evening to those who called to extend their best wishes to the interesting couple. ## BIG SUR RANCHER

WANTS TO RETURN

George B. Cary, who six years ago disappeared from the Molera ranch in the Big Sur, after a shooting scrape in which he wounded his brother-in-law, A. R. Wardell, has approached a Salinas attorney to find out whether charges would be pressed against him if he were to return.

District Attorney Harry Noland stated that if Cary could prove that he has lived in the state of California for three of the six years since his disappearance, no charges would be brought against him, due to the statute of limitations.

BOXING FANS WILL ENJOY SPORT FRIDAY

And what a program they have prepared for the Presidio Bowl tomorrow, Friday, night. Thirty-two rounds, thirty-two, and each one packed with excitement.

Carmel fight fans will be there for our own 120-pound Bab Dalton will be matched with Bud Nauly, 117-pounds. And how that lad can box!

The main bout will be between Buck Anderson, 148 pounds, and Kid Novak, 144 pounds; and there'll be six rounds between Jimmie Vandevere and Al Suldickas, 137 and 139.

Louie Watson will box Sammy Burlet; Young Lavery will be paired with Vic Escalante; Jack Everett boxes Tex Rickard; Johnnie Slovak meets Jack Burton and Battling Bons and Fighting Williams will battle for supremacy.

The evening will be in charge of Colonel Leninger and the 11th Cavalry Band will furnish the music.

Ernest Bixler left last week for the east. He will see the fair at Chicago, and on his return take possession of a new car which he has ordered.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnett of the Homestead Cafe drove down to San Luis Obispo Hot Springs Monday and returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bothwell of San Jose, with their children Winifred and Gordon, arrived in Carmel Friday for a month's stay.

PISTOL CLUB BARBECUE

BIG HIT LAST SUNDAY

Those who didn't attend the barbecue of the Carmel Pistol club given at the Mathiot ranch last Sunday are green with envy of the more fortunate, who numbered about two hundred.

The pistol club members and a group of Sherwood archers of Pacific Grove vied with each other in marksmanship, and although the pistols scored the highest count, the bow and arrow enthusiasts surprised the throng by their accuracy.

Although the committee felt they were preparing a meal for an army, the hungry horde soon reduced the supplies to a minimum, without neglecting the beer tables.

The club gives many thanks to the four boy scouts from the Carmel troop who took care of the parking, which with the ample facilities of the Rancho Carmelo, united to make a perfect day.

If the pistol club should repeat this form of entertainment next year, everybody will be clamoring for admission.

H. R. Kerner and family went to Fresno Saturday, but hustled back early Sunday morning after finding the thermometer Saturday at 112.
